

OVERLAND PARK MARRIOTT, OVERLAND PARK, KS

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Craig Cary, University of Delaware, "A meta-genome level analysis of a complex microbial symbiosis from an extreme environment"

Martin Feder, The University of Chicago, "The Perfect Storm: Sciomics, scientific communities, and informatics"

Leonard Krishtalka, University of Kansas, "Get Funded: Writing the great American grant proposal"

Wayne Potts, University of Utah, "Ecological approaches for characterizing gene function"

Barbara A. Schaal and Ana Caicedo, Washington University, "Genetic Variation in Disease Resistance: Arabidopsis and Solanum"

Jack C. Schultz, Penn State University, "Functional genomics approaches to understanding plant-herbivore interactions"

Mark Ungerer, Kansas State University, "The genetic architecture of inflorescence development in Arabidopsis thaliana"

Cynthia Weinig, University of Minnesota, "Adaptive evolution of light-regulated developmental pathways in natural plant populations"

ECOLOGICAL GENOMICS IS...

An emerging field at the interface of ecology, evolution and genomics that seeks to place the functional significance of genes and genomes into an ecological and evolutionary context.

AN EXCITING NEW FIELD

Symposium participants will learn about this new interdisciplinary field from some of the leaders at the forefront of Ecological and Evolutionary Functional Genomics. Participants will also learn about the new research initiative in Kansas that includes 30 faculty in nine departments from three Kansas universities. In addition, NSF program officers will discuss current and emerging funding opportunities.

PRESENT YOUR RESEARCH

We want to learn about your research too! Bring a poster to the Saturday session. Poster presentation topics are not limited to Ecological Genomics.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

The registration fee of $75 ($50 for students) includes breakfast both mornings, lunch on Saturday, refreshments on Saturday afternoon, and a poster session reception. Dinner Saturday evening is not included in fee.

Please register by Oct. 17, 2003 by phone or fax, on the web or using the form below.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

Hotel accommodations are not included in the registration fee. The Overland Park Marriott has reserved a block of rooms for symposium participants at the special rate of $69. Please refer to the Ecological Genomics Symposium when making your reservation. After Oct. 17, the special rate will only be honored on a space-available basis.

SYMPOSIUM FUNDING

Funded by Kansas NSF EPSCoR and Kansas Technology Enterprise Corporation.

Refund Policy

If you must cancel your registration, do so as soon as possible. Substitutions are encouraged. A full refund, minus a $10 processing fee, will be made if cancellation is received by the Division of Continuing Education by 5 p.m., Oct. 17. After that date, due to guarantees we must give, refunds are not available. Refunds cannot be given for amounts less than $5.

Cancellation Policy

The Kansas State University Division of Continuing Education may cancel or postpone any event because of insufficient registration or other unforeseen circumstances. If a program is canceled or postponed, the Division of Continuing Education will refund registration fees but cannot be held responsible for other costs, charges or expenses, including cancellation/change charges assessed by airlines or travel agencies.

Special Assistance

Kansas State University is committed to making program activities accessible to all participants. If you have special requirements due to disabilities or dietary restrictions, indicate your needs on the registration form or contact the Division of Continuing Education Registrar at (785) 532-5566 at least three weeks before the start of the program. After this date, we will make every effort to provide assistance, but cannot guarantee that requested services will be available.
